

Mr. Wally Hoff
Northrop Grumman Corporation

EDUCATION

Cambridge University

Post-graduate studies, 1972-1973

University of Maryland

M.S., Electrical Engineering, 1970

South Dakota State University

B.S., Electrical Engineering, 1960

WORK EXPERIENCE

Part-time Consultant, 2002 - Present

Northrop-Grumman Corporation, 1960 - 2002

Senior Vice President, Electronic Systems, 2001-2002

Vice President and General Manager, Aerospace Systems, 1996-2001

Deputy General Manager, Aerospace Divisions, 1994-1996

General Manager, Systems Development and Operations, 1993-1994

General Manager, Design Engineering and Manufacturing Operations, 1991-1993

General Manager, Air Force Avionics Division, 1990-1991

General Manager, Surveillance Radar Division, 1986-1990

Department Manager, Processing and C³ Systems, 1985-1986

Department Manger, Very High Speed Integrated Circuit and Digital Processing, 1984-1985

Manager, Radar Systems Development, 1983-1984

Engineering Manager, Advanced Technology Division, 1980-1983

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Defense Systems, Avionics, Radar, E/O, EW, Active Arrays, Signal/Data processing.

PROFESSIONAL/SCIENTIFIC/HONORARY AFFILIATIONS

Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (Life Senior Member); Cambridge Philosophical Society; Air Force Association; Professional Engineer (State of Maryland); Engineering Society of Baltimore; Board of Directors, University of Maryland-Baltimore, Museum of Industry-Baltimore, Historical Electronics Museum-Baltimore.