

Maj Gen Eric B. Nelson, USAF (Ret)

Private Consultant

EDUCATION

Air War College, Maxwell AFB, AL

Auburn University

M.B.A.

Air Force Institute of Technology, Dayton OH

M.S., Astronautics

New York University

B.S., Aeronautical Engineering

WORK EXPERIENCE

Aerospace Industry Consulting Services

Principal and Owner, 1991-Present

United States Air Force

Program Executive Officer – Command, Control, and Communications,

Assistant Secretary of the Air Force, 1990-1991

Air Force Electronic Systems Center, Vice Commander, 1987-1990.

Air Force Systems Command, Chief of Staff, DCS Plans, DCS Systems, 1981-1987

Electronic Systems Center Program Director (JTIDS, Tactical Comm) 1978-1981

Aeronautical Systems Center Director (Avionics) 1973-1977

Doctoral Student, Air Force Institute of Technology (Optimal Control Theory) 1971-1973

U.S. Air Force Academy, Professor of Mathematics 1968-1971

Fighter Pilot (F-86D/L, F-105), GCI Controller, Spacetrack Operations and Development 1957-1968

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Systems acquisition, theater command and control, strategic command and control, avionics.